OIG Self-Disclosure Protocol

- What not eligible
  - Errors or overpayments where no potential violation of CMPL
  - Requests for opinion on whether there is a potential violation
  - Stark-only conduct
  - Settlement less than $10,000 ($50,000 for AKS)
OIG SDP Resolutions

- Benchmark 1.5 multiplier
  - Claims Calculation
    - All claims or statistical sample of 100 claims minimum
    - Use point estimate (not lower bound)
  - Excluded persons – salary and benefits-based
  - AKS – remuneration-based
- Presumption of no CIA
- Six-year statute of limitations
- Tolling of the 60-day period after submission
- Does not secure FCA release, but can help limit exposure, including 60-day issues
- More predictable process, but DOJ may become involved

Common Mistakes Providers Make in the OIG Self-Disclosure Protocol

- States in the initial disclosure or at settlement that there is no fraud liability.
- Does not identify potential laws violated.
- Discloses the conduct too early.
- No plan to quantify damages.
- Conduct only violates the Stark law.
- Refuses to pay a multiplier.
- Lack of cooperation.
- Argues damages should be calculated in a manner contrary to the revised SDP.

Appendix

Overpayment Statute: ACA, Section 6402(a); SSA Section 1128J(d); 42 U.S.C. § 1320a-7k(d)

• In general. If a person has received an overpayment, the person shall—
  - report and return the overpayment to the Secretary, the State, an intermediary, a carrier, or a contractor, as appropriate, at the correct address; and
  - notify the Secretary, State, intermediary, carrier, or contractor to whom the overpayment was returned in writing of the reason for the overpayment.

• What is an “Overpayment?”
  - The term “overpayment” means any funds that a person receives or retains under subchapter XVIII or XIX of this chapter to which the person, after applicable reconciliation, is not entitled under such subchapter.

Overpayments and False Claims

• Deadline for reporting and returning overpayments. The later of—
  - the date which is 60 days after the date on which the overpayment was identified; or
  - the date any corresponding cost report is due, if applicable.

• Enforcement: If an overpayment is retained past the deadline, it may constitute an “obligation” under the False Claims Act.
  - False Claims Act: imposes liability for “knowingly concealing or knowingly and improperly avoiding or decreasing an obligation” to pay the United States. (31 USC 3729(a)(1)(G))
  - ACA also created new CMPL action for a penalty of up to $10,000 per item or service and three times the amount claimed and exclusion for “Any person . . . that knows of an overpayment . . . and does not report and return the overpayment in accordance with [section 6402].”
Final Rule, 81 FR 7954 (February 12, 2016)

- Regulatory provisions interpreting the Overpayment Statute (42 C.F.R. 401.301-5)
  - Lookback period
    - 6 years from the date the overpayment was identified
  - How to report and return
    - Use the “most appropriate mechanism” based on the “nature of the overpayment”
  - Meaning of identified
    - When a provider or supplier “has determined, or should have determined through the exercise of reasonable diligence, that [it] received an overpayment and quantified the amount of the overpayment”
    - “Should have determined” means the provider or supplier failed to exercise reasonable diligence and in fact received an overpayment

When does the 60 day clock start?

- CMS said providers have time to conduct the “reasonable diligence” before the 60 day clock starts to run
  - After receiving “credible information” the provider needs to undertake reasonable diligence
  - CMS articulated a 6 month “benchmark” for conducting reasonable diligence, except in “extraordinary circumstances” such as Stark issues, natural disasters, or states of emergency
  - The 60 day clock starts to run when either:
    - When the reasonable diligence is completed, or
    - On the day the credible information was received and the provider failed to conduct reasonable diligence (and an overpayment in fact was received)

What does “reasonable diligence” mean?

- Reasonable diligence includes both:
  - Proactive compliance activities conducted in good faith by qualified individuals to monitor for the receipt of overpayments; and
  - Investigations conducted in good faith and in a timely manner by qualified individuals in response to obtaining credible information of a potential overpayment
- CMS believes that “undertaking no or minimal compliance activities to monitor the accuracy and appropriateness of… Medicare claims would expose a provider or supplier to liability under the identified standard articulated in this rule based on a failure to exercise reasonable diligence if the provider or supplier received an overpayment”
What does “credible information” mean?

- Includes information that supports a reasonable belief that an overpayment may have been received.
- Determining whether information is credible is a fact-specific inquiry.
- Examples:
  - Government or contractor audit results
    - “Obligation to accept or appeal” or disagree with findings but not appeal
    - Scope of duty to review is limited to the issue audited
    - However, providers may need to review claims beyond the audit time period to meet the 6 year lookback period
  - General government work, such as the OIG Work Plan or CMS transmittals, do not constitute “credible information” triggering the rule’s obligations. CMS encourages providers to use publicly available sources to inform their compliance program planning.
  - Hotline complaints
    - May qualify as credible information depending on facts
    - Providers must assess individual complaints as multiple complaints about the same issue
  - Significant increase in Medicare revenue with no apparent reason
